

Journal - Office of Legislative Counsel
Friday - 7 February 1969

Page 2
STATINTL

STATINTL

25X1 4. [] DDI, called to say that Al Haynes, State Department, had been in touch with their office and indicated that the Latin American Subcommittee of the House Committee on Foreign Affairs would be interested in receiving NIS's in the future. Haynes was exploring this with [] I told [] that this type of material had never been provided to the Congress specifically on a continuing basis and suggested that he get as many of the facts as were available from Mr. Haynes so we could focus on the situation. I asked him particularly if he could determine whether the specific reference to NIS's had been made by someone on the Hill or whether this was a suggestion by someone in the State Department. [] said Haynes is sending him a memo on this which he will bring to our attention and to the attention of the DDI.

25X1 5. [] John Norpel, on the staff of the Senate Subcommittee on Internal Security, called to say that he learned today that [], a former employee of the staff who still does some part-time work there, had apparently referred a Reuters' correspondent by the name of Robert Williams to me regarding the handling of defectors. Norpel said although [] denied doing this he (Norpel) happened to overhear [] conversation with Williams and wanted to alert me to a possible call from Williams. Norpel expressed apologies on behalf of the Subcommittee for [] indiscretion.

STATINTL

25X1 6. [] Mr. Pat Holt, on the staff of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, called to say that he would be leaving tomorrow on a trip to Latin America which would include visits to []

25X1 7. [] Returned to Mr. C. B. Morrison, on the staff of Senator Allen J. Ellender (D., La.), the second group of the Senator's film from his trip to the Soviet Union. Mr. Morrison showed me a collection of Soviet publications which Morrison said a member of the Soviet Embassy had left the other day and which the Senator thought we might be interested in seeing. I expressed interest in these and Morrison will make them available to us within the next few weeks.